The Paradox

AyeeSupporter woke up one Saturday morning and instantly went to the computer to check on TheSeeker216's new stories. Unfortunately, there was nothing new. He then went to his own profile and found a fanfiction, called "The Paradox". "Wait, what?" said AyeeSupporter. He had no idea what was going on. "Welp, that's enough internet for one day." And then he went back to bed.

The end.
